MARVELOUS VIOLINIST TO APPEAR As soon as Erika Morini, the girl gradus of the violin, universally acgamins of the violin, universally pe-knowledged as the greatest player of her sex the world has ever known, be-gan to play in America, the critics and feature writers of the newspapers began to call her a "phenomenon." They meant more than calling her phenomenal, in the sense that no artist of her years has ever played as well or with as much understanding of the profound meaning of wester.

or with as much understanding of the brofound meaning of music.

On January 26, 1921, Erika Morini made her debut in New YLork. Unknown in America, she played and the next morning the great city knew that a new figure had stepped up among the masters of the violin. For her next performance the house was sold out. It has always been sold

A news weekly and a comedy entitled "A Thousand a Week," will also be shore. Don't forget the great film at the Davis today, "lust around the Osrner." It is just as good 25 "Humoresque."
The same author wrote both stories.

Pive Musical McLarens and Werner Ameres Trio Coning to Strand Thursday, Friday and Saturday,

The Norwich public will certainly get a treat when the show for the last half of this week opens. These are all exceptionally bir B. F. Kekh's acts, esceptionally bir B. F. Keith's acts, especially the Five Musical McLarens and the Werner Amoros Trio. There are also two exceptionally good comedy acts in Adler and Dunbar and Joe Huri. The Five Musical McLarens are in a class at by themseves when it comes to handling musical instruments. The first company of its kind in Norwich. Werner and Armoros Trio will present an exceedingly clever act and is the best novelty comedy act seen here in some time. some time.
